

Quick Balance Terms & Conditions

Quick Balance allows you to swipe down from the login page of WESTconsin's Mobile App and view your account balances and last 5 transactions without the need to login. By enabling Quick Balance any person with access to your device will have access to your WESTconsin account balances. You are responsible for the security and safeguarding of your mobile device. The use of Quick Balance signifies you acknowledge these terms have been accepted by one or more of the persons who established the subject account with us. You are responsible for all transfers and/or transactions performed with Quick Balance and agree not to hold WESTconsin liable for any errors. If you are not comfortable with these terms we suggest you not enable Quick Balance and resort to using your username and password to gain access to your account through this mobile device.
