

Dale Dahlke

Dale was born and raised in New Lisbon. After graduating from New Lisbon High School, he attended UW-Platteville, earning a Bachelor of Science degree in Biology. Dale earned his Master's Degree in Guidance and Counseling from UW-Stout in 1980.

Dale taught Biology, coached football and track and field at Watertown High School for seven years. He served in the US Army and the Wisconsin National Guard from 1970 to 1976. In 1976, Dale, his wife, Linda, and the first of their three children moved to Menomonie. He taught Biology, Anatomy-Physiology, and coached track and field for 26 years at Menomonie High School. He retired from teaching after the 2002-03 school year and then served for two years as interim Activities Director. He was then a counselor for Educational Talent Search at UW-Stout for four years. He is a certified official for track and field and enjoys fly fishing and working as a volunteer on stream restoration projects with WIDNR. Dale also teaches fly fishing and aquatic invertebrates' studies to students in middle school through college.

Dale and Linda live in Knapp, have three children and six grandchildren. He is a member of St. Paul's Lutheran Church, member of Menomonie Athletic Booster Club, and board member of Wisconsin Clear Waters Chapter of Trout Unlimited where he serves as chairman for the Trout in the Classroom project, works on stream restorations, and volunteers as a Water testing volunteer for WIDNR. Dale has been a member of WESTconsin Credit Union since 1995 and was elected to the Board of Directors in 2005.

Dave Halama

David Halama was born and raised in Menomonie. He graduated from Menomonie High School and helped with his family business until moving briefly to Illinois for six years. He returned to Menomonie in 1994. Halama currently owns and operates a small Amsoil Synthetic lubricant business and is also employed by GFL Disposal company.

Halama has been involved with many community organizations over the years. He was the manager of the Dunn County Ice Arena, where he oversaw all building operations, and served as the Board President of the Menomonie Youth Hockey Association. He has supported the Mabel Tainter Center for the Arts as the Facilities and Maintenance manager and has volunteered with Thursday's Table since it was established, cooking meals for those in need. He spent time volunteering for the Menomonie School District when his children were young.

Halama and his wife, Sue, live in Menomonie and have two adult children. They enjoy spending time camping, gardening, and being with family. Halama has been a member of WESTconsin Credit Union since 1994.

Dianna Fiergola

Dianna Fiergola was raised on a hobby farm outside of Spring Valley. After graduating Spring Valley High School in 1985 she attended Oral Roberts University in Tulsa, OK. Her retail career took her to Dallas, Hartford, and the Twin Cities before bringing her back home to the Menomonie area. Fiergola's retail management career spans from tabletop & bridal registry to men's & women's clothing and shoes, real estate, restaurants, and 13+ years in fine jewelry with Shane Co and Helzberg Diamonds where received her GIA credentials in Diamond Essentials, Colored Gemstone Essentials, and Jewelry Essentials. In spring of 2016, Fiergola opened Mainstream Boutique in Menomonie.

Fiergola is an active community member and currently serves as a board member for Boys and Girls Club of the Greater Chippewa Valley, The Community Foundation of Dunn County, and is the Ambassador Chair and newest member of the Menomonie Area Chamber and Visitor's Center Board of Directors. She has also been involved in the Cammie Johnson Foundation, Big Brothers Big Sisters of Northwestern Wisconsin, and various church and civic organizations.

In her free time, Fiergola loves to travel, spend time in the kitchen with her mom, garden, search antique stores, visit local wineries, and try her hand at vinting her own creations. She was on a quest to see all 50 states before the age of 50 and was able to accomplish that with a visit to Alaska, a few years ago. Fiergola has been a member of *WEST*consin Credit Union since 2016.

Ed Accola

Ed Accola grew up and attended High School in River Falls. He received a Business Administration degree with concentrations in Finance and Marketing from Concordia University St. Paul, Minnesota. After college, he began his career in the Logistics and Supply Chain industry, in Knoxville TN. In 2006, the Accola family moved back to Wisconsin from Ohio after purchasing a small farm outside of Fall Creek.

Accola is currently the Vice President of Roehl Logistics, Inc. He and his wife Melanie have three children all currently attending college. He has volunteered with Junior Achievement, Eau Claire County 4-H, Eau Claire County Fair, and their local church. He has also served on several community organizations' boards and held various positions over the years.

Even living out of state for nearly 20 years, Ed continued to use *WEST*consin as his primary financial institution due to the high level of service and value. He continues his membership today for the same reasons. Ed has been a proud member of *WEST*consin Credit Union since 1987.

Gerald Wolf

Jerry Wolf was born and raised in rural Elmwood. He graduated from Elmwood High School in 1975, then began his career in agriculture by farming on the 200-acre Wolf family dairy farm that has been operated by the family for over 140 years. Wolf completed Chippewa Valley Technical College adult agriculture classes, and the Director Leadership Program when serving on Countryside Cooperative's Board of Directors for five years.

Wolf farms in partnership with his brother, Chuck, as Sunnyview Dairy, which has been certified organic since 1998. Sunnyview received the Dunn County Farm Family of the Year from the Menomonie Chamber of Commerce in 2003, and in 2006, hosted the Dunn County Dairy Breakfast. In the fall of 2018, Wolf and his family retired from milking cows and the herd was dispersed. They continue to grow and market organic corn, rye, barley, and straw.

Wolf has served on the Countryside (ALCIVIA) Co-op Young Producers, Countryside Co-op, and the Dunn County Dairy Promotion boards. He's also an active member of St. Henry's Parish and the Elmwood FFA Alumni Association. He and his wife Tammy are blessed to have all three of their children and their spouses living close, along with their six grand babies, all four years and under.

Wolf has been a member of *WEST*consin Credit Union since 1993. He was elected to the Board of Directors in 2005 and currently serves as Chairperson. Wolf also serves as a member of the *WEST*consin Realty & *WEST*consin Title Services and Cyber Security Committees.

Todd Leipnitz

Todd Leipnitz was born and raised in Menomonie, Wisconsin. After graduating from Menomonie High School, he attended UW-Madison earning degrees in Microbiology and Biochemistry. Leipnitz earned his Doctor of Dental degree at the University of Minnesota and is currently a self-employed dentist at Leipnitz Dental.

Leipnitz and his wife Dana have three children. He enjoys hunting, fishing, traveling, and spending time with his family. He has served on the advisory board for Chippewa Valley Technical College's dental hygiene program, the Greater Menomonie Area Free Clinic board and has coached youth sports. He also is a member of Cedarbrook Church, Red Cedar Pheasants Forever, and the Northwest District Dental Study Club.

Leipnitz has been a member of *WEST*consin Credit Union since 1986, was elected to the Board of Directors in 2008, and currently serves on the audit committee.